Vancouver, WA – September 28, 2009 - Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSB)

In a September 14, 2009 proclamation from Mayor Royce E. Pollard and the Vancouver City Council, Riverview Community Bank was acknowledged for a decade of supporting the “Six to Sunset” Concert Series in Esther Short Park.

The City proclaimed its gratitude to Riverview as a valuable community partner, even in difficult economic times, for its steadfast support, commitment and vision to America’s Vancouver, for maintaining the quality for life for all its citizens by providing a family-friendly, fun and free opportunity for the community to enjoy.

“Community is so important to us, it’s part of our name”, said Pat Sheaffer, CEO of Riverview. “Since moving our headquarters to downtown Vancouver in 1990, we’ve focused on being the best corporate citizen possible. Esther Short Park is a true gem for the City of Vancouver and we’re pleased to do our small part in supporting the City and our friends and neighbors throughout the region.”

The Riverview “Six to Sunset” concert series features local and regional talent and drew nearly 300,000 people over the last ten years, providing both a cultural event for the community as well as an economic stimulus to downtown businesses.
