Riverview Named One of the Best Places to Work in Washington

Washington CEO Magazine has named Riverview Community Bank one of Washington's Best Companies to Work For in 2007.

Riverview was selected from among more than 200 Evergreen State companies nominated for consideration. The overall rankings will be published in Washington CEO Magazine's July issue. There are four categories: large, medium, small and non-profits.

"Our evaluation is extensive. It includes surveys of both employees and management. It is then reviewed by a distinguished group of human resource professionals."

"We don't work for awards, but it is gratifying to be acknowledged for our efforts," said Ron Wyseske, President of Riverview Community Bank. "All of our employee-owners are responsible for these results and for creating a positive team environment dedicated to delivering on our brand promise to provide the best local, personal service to our clients."
