Riverview Community Bank Celebrates 30 years of Gifts for Kids in Care Tradition

Vancouver, WA – December 20, 2011 – Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSF)
The Employee-Owners of Riverview Community Bank marked 30 years of tradition by donating hundreds of gifts to foster children through the Bank's "Shirley DuPaul - Gifts for Kids in Care" program. Every year, the Department of Social and Health Services coordinates this program for foster children in Vancouver, Portland and Klickitat County.

The foster children were asked to make a "wishes and dreams" list. Riverview employees personally buy gifts for the children. The lists included everything from Barbies to bicycles, but following a national trend, this year there were more requests for basics, such as jeans, sweatshirts, boots and socks. Nearly 100 Riverview employees purchased 365 gifts for 130 foster children in hopes of making this Holiday season brighter. The donations this year also included more than 200 gifts to the gift bank for Clark County foster children just entering the system.

"I am proud of the generosity of our Riverview family but not surprised," said Pat Sheaffer, Chairman and CEO. "Here at Riverview our employees give in many different ways year-round. We are a Community Bank and a community-minded business."

The Gifts for Kids in Care program honors the memory of Shirley DuPaul who was the driving force behind the program at Riverview for the first 20 years.
