

Press Release

For Immediate Release
January 26, 2012

Contacts: Kim Capeloto or Scott Miller, 360-834-2231

Riverview's Dick Michalek Appointed Senior Commercial Team Leader

Vancouver, WA – January 26, 2012-- Ron Wysaske, Riverview President and Chief Operating Officer today announced the appointment of Dick Michalek to Senior Commercial Team Leader in charge of loan production, and a member of Riverview's Executive Management Team.

"Dick is a valuable member of our team and I am extremely pleased to make this announcement," said Wysaske. "His many years of business experience and leadership have proven invaluable, and will continue to serve the Bank and our customers as we expand products, services and outreach throughout the region." This promotion will make it possible for him to help guide us to an even brighter future as the only bank headquartered in Clark County and one of the few community banks left in the region."

In his new capacity, Michalek is responsible for all Riverview loan production. He is an 11-year Riverview employee with 40 years of banking experience. Michalek earned an MBA degree from Seattle University and is a graduate of Pacific Coast Banking School.

About Riverview

Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (www.riverviewbank.com) is headquartered in Vancouver, Washington – just north of Portland, Oregon on the I-5 corridor. With assets of $873.5 million, it is the parent company of the 89 year-old Riverview Community Bank, as well as Riverview Asset Management Corp. There are 17 branches, including twelve in the Portland-Vancouver area and three lending centers, with an 18th branch currently under construction in Gresham, OR. The Bank offers true community banking services, focusing on providing the highest quality service and financial products to commercial and retail customers. Riverview was named one of the Top 100 Best Companies to Work For in Oregon and Washington this year and was honored as one of the top 75 Corporate Philanthropists in Washington for 2011.

--END--