

Contacts: Pat Sheaffer or Ron Wysaske
Riverview Bancorp (360) 693-6650

Riverview Contributes to Vancouver's Downtown Association

Vancouver, WA – January 21, 2010 - Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSF)). Riverview Community Bank is pleased to partner with Vancouver's Downtown Association (VDA) and support its efforts with a tax deductible contribution of $66,666 to the Association through the State Main Street Tax Incentive Program.

In 2005, legislation was passed to create the "Main Street Tax Credit Incentive Program." Through the program, businesses are eligible to take a B&O tax credit for contributions given to eligible downtown revitalization organizations, including Vancouver's Downtown Association. The VDA is eligible to receive up to $133,333 in tax credit contributions annually.

"We're pleased to be able to make this contribution and focus our tax dollars to where they belong, in our local community," said Ron Wysaske, Riverview President. "The VDA's efforts in retaining and recruiting new businesses to the downtown core along with increasing customer appeal are admirable. We believe the VDA is making a difference and encourage other businesses to lend their support."

About the Company

Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (www.riverviewbank.com) is headquartered in Vancouver, Washington – just north of Portland, Oregon on the I-5 corridor. With assets of $858 million, it is the parent company of the 86 year-old Riverview Community Bank, as well as Riverview Mortgage and Riverview Asset Management Corp. There are 17 branches, including ten in Clark County, two in Multnomah County and three lending centers. The Bank offers true community banking services, focusing on providing the highest quality service and financial products to commercial and retail customers.