Riverview Community Bank Receives Community Service Award from AWB

Vancouver, WA – May 20, 2010 - Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq: RVSB).

The Association of Washington Business, has recognized Riverview Community Bank with a Community Service Award for its efforts in its annual Fill-A-Bag food drive. The program raised 16.5 tons of food and $7,000 in cash donations in 2009. Altogether, local food banks received $65,000 in value thanks to Fill-a-Bag. The program is a great example of how small individual donations, a dedicated staff, along with teamwork from local business communities, can turn into an enormous gift to those who need it most.

Along with Riverview, 20 other Washington businesses were recognized. “Even during a deep recession, Washington businesses have found ways to give back to their communities and help those most in need,” said AWB President Don Brunell. “For these employers and their employees, giving back is integral to who they are and what they do. It’s part of how they do business,” he said. “Thanks to their volunteer efforts, the lives of thousands of men, women and children in our state have been a little better this year.”

The AWB Community Service Awards are presented annually for projects that support education, youth organizations, community beautification projects, community organizations that help people in need or programs recognizing volunteerism. Representatives from AWB member companies and organizations review all applications and select the final award winners.
