RIVERVIEW COMMUNITY BANK HIRES KIM CAPELOTO

Vancouver, WA – August 26, 2010 – Riverview Community Bank has announced Kim J. Capeloto has joined Riverview as Executive Vice President - Operations and Marketing, where he will manage the operations, technology, and public relations functions of the Bank.

Capeloto has 27 years of experience in the retail and financial services industry, including more than 20 years in management. He most recently served as interim President & CEO of the Greater Vancouver Chamber of Commerce.

Capeloto serves the community in a variety of areas, including Identity Clark County Board Member, Community Choices Advisory Board, Chairman of the Board of the School of Piano Technology for the Blind, and is a Board Member for both Junior Achievement and the Washington State University Diversity Advisory Board.

Ron Wyseske, President and COO of Riverview said, “Kim Capeloto is an asset to our community, and is well known as a talented banker and a fine leader. Given the economic landscape, there couldn’t be a better time than right now to add Kim’s experience and leadership to our company. With his help, Riverview will continue to play an important role in community growth and development. He’s a proven talent, and it is our intent to share his positive energy both inside and outside our company. He understands what it means to be a community banker, and the employee-owners of Riverview enthusiastically welcome Kim.”
