Riverview Community Bank Continues Gifts for Kids in Care Tradition

Vancouver, WA – December 16, 2010 – Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSB)

The Employee-Owners of Riverview Community Bank marked 29 years of tradition by donating nearly 400 gifts to foster children through the Bank's "Shirley DuPaul - Gifts for Kids in Care" program. Every year, the Department of Social and Health Services coordinates this program for foster children in Vancouver, Portland and Klickitat County.

The foster children were asked to make a "wishes and dreams" list. Riverview employees then randomly draw names and personally buy gifts for their child. The lists included everything from Barbies to bicycles, but following a national trend, this year there were more requests for basics, such as jeans, sweatshirts, boots and socks. Over 100 Riverview employees purchased gifts for 130 foster children in hopes of making this Holiday season brighter.

"Every year I am overwhelmed by the support of our employees for this program", stated Pat Sheaffer, Chairman and CEO of Riverview Community Bank. "I am so proud of their generosity for those in need; it exemplifies the true meaning of the Holidays."

The Gifts for Kids in Care program honors the memory of Shirley DuPaul who was the driving force behind the program at Riverview for the first 20 years.
