Riverview Community Bank Collects 296,000 Pounds of Food For Local Communities

Vancouver, WA – April 8, 2011 - Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq: RVSB). Riverview Community Bank is pleased to announce its annual food drive efforts brought in the equivalent of 296,000 pounds of food for local food banks during this year's Fill-A-Bag and Walk and Knock efforts, including a $5,500 contribution from the Bank.

"Thank you to all our friends, customers and community partners like Gresham Ford, who helped bring in more food than ever before," said Ron Wyseske, President of Riverview. "Once again this food drive proved just how generous our local communities are. Working together, we made a difference and helped ease a burden for many families."

This year Riverview expanded the Fill-A-Bag program into the Gresham community. The program was hugely successful, thanks to the support of the Wood Village Branch and Gresham community partners, including Gresham Ford, Boeing and the Gresham Outlook. Branch Manager Casey Ryan, VP received a Golden Note award from the Gresham Chamber of Commerce for his efforts, which resulted in 150,000 pounds of food for Snow-CAP Community Charities.

For the ninth year, Riverview also supported the Clark County Walk and Knock food drive as a financial sponsor and collection site. Riverview's Washington state branches collected the equivalent of over 100,000 pounds of food.

Fill-A-Bag Community Partners include: Harvest Market and The Enterprise newspaper in White Salmon; The Pioneer newspaper and A&J Market in Stevenson; The Goldendale Sentinel newspaper, Byers Realty and Realty and IGA Food Mart in Goldendale; The City of Aumsville, Aumsville Market, Aumsville Gas & Mini Mart, T.G. Nichols Plumbing and Aumsville Volunteer Firefighters in Aumsville; and Gresham Ford, Boeing and the Gresham Outlook newspaper in Gresham.

The continued growth of Riverview's food drive is a reflection of the generosity within the local communities we serve.
