Stacey Graham Named to Riverview Board of Directors

Vancouver, Wash., November 24, 2020 -- Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSB) today announced the appointment of Stacey Graham, Chief Strategist at What's Next? Strategies to the Board of Directors for Riverview Community Bank and Riverview Bancorp, Inc.

"Our Board and Company will utilize Stacey's extensive experience in business management, marketing, and the banking industry to continue building awareness of not only the great products and services we provide, but also our commitment to the communities we serve," said Kevin J. Lycklama, President and Chief Executive Officer of Riverview Bancorp. "Stacey has a great understanding of the banking community and will be invaluable to our company as a member of our Board of Directors."

As the Chief Strategist at What's Next? Strategies, Ms. Graham develops marketing, branding, fundraising and strategic planning for clients across the country. Her banking experience began in 2005 at First Independent Bank where she was Chief Strategy Officer/EVP until 2012 when she worked at Sterling Savings Bank as Senior Vice President & Integration Executive. She also held the position of President at the Humane Society of Southwest Washington for nearly eight years. She attended Willamette University and also received a diploma in Bank Marketing & Management at the American Bankers Association School of Bank Marketing & Management.

In addition to her other responsibilities, Ms. Graham is also a board member for both the Lighthouse Foundation and The Historic Trust. She served as Vice Chair for six years and Chair for three years at The Historic Trust where she helped to promote preservation, education, economic development and celebrating historic events.
