Ron Wyseske named to Community Bankers of Washington 2013-2014 Board of Directors

(VANCOUVER, Wash.) – Riverview Community Bank President and Chief Operating Officer Ron Wyseske was re-elected to the Community Bankers of Washington (CBW) Board of Directors during the group's recent annual meeting. As the only trade association in Washington that advocates exclusively for independent community banks, CBW serves as a distinct voice for community banks throughout Washington state.

Wyseske joined Riverview Community Bank in 1976, and has served as president and COO since 2004. He holds a bachelor's degree and an MBA from Washington State University, and is active in numerous professional, educational and civic organizations. He was first elected to CBW's Board in 2011.

Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq: RVSB), the parent company of the 90-year-old Riverview Community Bank and Riverview Asset Management Corp., is headquartered in Vancouver, Washington with assets of $775 million. Riverview has been recognized as a top Corporate Philanthropist in Oregon in 2012 and 2013, and in Washington in 2012. Riverview was the recipient of the Greater Vancouver Chamber of Commerce 2013 Business Community Builder Award, recognizing the bank's efforts to boost the local economy through its 2012 $100 million local lending pledge. The bank recently renewed its lending commitment, doubling the pledge to $200 million this year. Riverview was also named one of the 100 Best Companies to Work For in Oregon for 2013.

The bank has 18 branches, including 13 in the Portland-Vancouver area, and three lending centers. Riverview offers true community banking services, focusing on providing the highest quality of service and financial products to commercial and retail customers.
