Michael Sventek, EVP and CLO, Announces Retirement from Riverview Bancorp, Inc.

Vancouver, WA – August 10, 2026 - Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq GSM: RVSB) (“Riverview” or the “Company”) today announced the retirement of Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer Michael Sventek, effective October 30, 2026.

“Mike has had a distinguished banking career spanning more than 35 years, and we are grateful for the leadership, experience and steady partnership he has brought to Riverview. During his tenure, he has been integral in establishing long-term growth strategies to increase and diversify our loan portfolio, ultimately expanding our ability to deepen client relationships throughout the communities we serve. Mike’s commitment to our clients and our people has made a meaningful difference, and we sincerely thank him for his contributions. We wish Mike all the best in his well-earned retirement,” stated Nicole Sherman, President and CEO.

"After many rewarding years in the financial services industry, the time feels right to begin a new chapter and to enjoy retirement. I am deeply grateful for the relationships I have built throughout my career and for the opportunity to work alongside so many talented and dedicated colleagues, especially here at Riverview Bank. It has been rewarding to help support the growth of our clients and communities, and I am proud of the strong team and culture we have built together. Riverview is a special organization with a bright future, and I leave with tremendous appreciation for everyone who has been part of this journey and confident in the Bank’s continued success," said Mike Sventek, EVP and Chief Lending Officer.

“As Mike moves on to this new chapter, we will also be commencing the search for his successor as our new Chief Lending Officer,” Sherman continued. “We plan to initiate a broad-based search in the upcoming month to identify a candidate who brings both the expertise and the dedication this position requires. We look forward to finding a leader who is committed to the clients and communities we serve and who can build on the strong foundation Mike leaves behind, while bringing a fresh perspective and energy to our already strong team.”
