

For Immediate Release:

January 15, 2016

Contact: Pat Sheaffer or Ron Wysaske, 360-693-6650

Riverview Promotes Richard High to Senior Vice President - Retail Lending Manager

(VANCOUVER, Wash.) – Riverview Community Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSF), announced the promotion of senior vice president Richard High to retail lending manager by the board of directors. In this newly created role, he will be responsible for consumer and mortgage loan production, application processing and credit quality.

“Since joining Riverview almost thirteen years ago, has made a major impact on our company, advancing from senior vice president in credit administration to his current position,” said Ron Wysaske, president and chief operating officer. “Starting as a teller nearly 30 years ago, Richard has vast banking experience and is the right person to lead our retail lending operations and assist our branch banking network.

A Pacific Northwest native, High has been dedicated to the community. A past board chair for the United Way of the Columbia Willamette and past board member for Partners in Careers, he stays active with both organizations on numerous committees.

About Riverview:

Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (www.riverviewbank.com) is headquartered in Vancouver, Washington – just north of Portland, Oregon on the I-5 corridor. With assets of $896 million, it is the parent company of the 92 year-old Riverview Community Bank, as well as Riverview Asset Management Corp. The Bank offers true community banking services, focusing on providing the highest quality service and financial products to commercial and retail customers. There are 17 branches, including twelve in the Portland-Vancouver area and three lending centers.

-- END --