Riverview hires Larry Schwartz as VP, Business Development Officer

(VANCOUVER, Wash.) – Riverview Community Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSF), recently announced the hiring of Larry Schwartz as new vice president, business development officer for Riverview’s Gresham branch. In his new capacity, Schwartz will continue to build professional and strategic business banking relationships throughout the greater East County.

“Larry is a savvy and energetic addition to our team,” says Jim Baldwin, Executive Vice President – Retail Banking. “I’m confident he will add even more expertise and commitment to community banking and community involvement to our already strong team in Gresham and East County.”

Schwartz brings nearly 30 years of business and local banking experience to Riverview, including a strong background in management, lending and credit approval. In addition to his work with Riverview, Schwartz serves on the board and executive committee of the Portland Police Sunshine Division, and on the board of Portland Fire & Rescue’s Toy N Joy Makers.

He earned his associate’s degree from Portland Community College and is a graduate of the National Consumer Credit School in Norman, Oklahoma. Schwartz is based out of Riverview’s Gresham branch at 225 E Burnside Rd., and can be reached directly at (503) 912-5403.
