Riverview Promotes Robert Sang and Cody Ritter to Commercial Team Leaders

Vancouver, WA – July 5, 2018 – Riverview Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ GSM: RVSB)

Riverview Community Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Riverview Bancorp, Inc. is pleased to announce the promotions of Robert Sang and Cody Ritter to senior vice presidents and commercial team leaders for the Oregon and Washington markets, respectively. Together, Sang and Ritter will direct the activities of one of the largest local lending teams in the Portland Metro Area.

“With over thirty years combined experience at Riverview, Bob and Cody have consistently demonstrated their commitment to our community, clients, and employees. It’s through this dedication that they have proven their ability to lead our commercial teams and we couldn’t be happier to have them on board,” said Steve Plambeck, executive vice president and chief lending officer.

Bob attended college at Portland State University and has been in banking since 1974. He is the point of contact at the Bank for the Network for Oregon Affordable Housing (NOAH). He can be reached at the Riverview Gateway office in Portland at 503-517-3506.

An Eastern Oregon University alumnus, Cody is also a graduate of the Western School of Commercial Lending. Prior to his most recent role as a commercial loan officer, he was responsible for problem loan workouts and reducing non-performing assets. Cody can be reached at the Riverview Center in Vancouver at 360-514-5087.
